The MindReset (TMR) is proud to announce Gender June! Over this month, look forward to content highlighting LGBTQ voices in our communities. In Washington DC, TMR will engage with LGBTQ organizations to create frameworks of healing and to highlight the intersectionality between LGBTQ identities and mental health in America.

“As a nation we’ve come so far and this has been accomplished by others’ support.”

June is also the month when Pride Week occurs in DC, an annual event that celebrates LGBTQ culture. This event serves as a platform to advocate for equal rights and policies on subjects ranging from same-sex marriage to removing gender-based workplace discrimination.

“I believe as humans we all deserve to be respected,” said a proud gay member of TMR, “We are constantly running into some that don’t believe this. As a nation we’ve come so far and this has been accomplished by others’ support. We can’t ‘fight’ a good ‘fight’ alone.”

TMR appreciates these viewpoints and stands in solidarity to support individuals and organizations aimed at creating an equitable society, inclusive of the LGBTQ community.
